

Questions to ask your doctor

- Is this medication still right for me?
- Are there lifestyle changes that I could try instead?
- If I don't need this medication, can we make a plan to discontinue it?

Always consult with your doctor before making any changes to your medications.